NEXT PRESIDENT

Receives Congratulations From His Defeated Opponent.

WILL OF THE PEOPLE IS LAW.

Says William J. Bryan in a Message to Major McKinley.

TAKES HIS DEFEAT MANFULLY

The Ohio Man Has Plenty of Electoral Votes to Spare.

SENDS A PATRIOTIC MESSAGE

To Chairman Hanna in which He Says It is a Victory for No Party or Section--A Magnificent Utterance From the Great Champion of Sound Money and Protection--McKinley Touches an Electric Button and Starts a New Industry in Nation.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.--Mr. Bryan has sent the following telegram to Major McKinley:

"Senator Jones has just informed me that the returns indicate your election and I hasten to extend my congratulations. We have submitted the issue to the American people and their will is law."

CANTON, O., Nov. 5.--President-elect McKinley to-night sent the following dispatch to Mark Hanna, at New York: "CANTON, O., Nov. 5. To Hon. M. A. Hanna, Waldorf Hotel, New York.

Your telegraphic message announcing the result of the election has been received. I beg you to accept my hearty thanks for your great services in the cause of sound money and protection throughout the campaign now closed and gloriously won. They were most generous and effective and we receive the warm approbation of your countrymen everywhere. I will be pleased to have you convey to your associates of the national committee my high appreciation of their efficient services.

The people in their majesty, ignoring party lines, have declared their detestation of repudiation and dishonor, in whatever specious guise they may be presented. They have with the same lightning power affirmed their devotion to law and order and their undeviating respect for justice and the courts. They have maintained their unflinching determination to support and uphold the constituted authorities of the country and have thereby given new vigor and strength to our free institutions. They have, indeed, again consecrated themselves to the country, and baptized the cherished ordinances of free government with a new and holy patriotism.

The victory is not to party or section, but of and for the whole American people. Not the least of the triumphs of the election is the obliteration of sectional lines in the republic. We have demonstrated to the world that we are a united people in purpose as in name. We have manifested in the great cause the spirit of fraternity and brotherhood that should always characterize our common and equal citizenship, and have proven conclusively that in a country of equal privileges and equal opportunity the insidious doctrine of hate, or of class or sectional distinctions, cannot prevail.

Let us, as Americans, straightway devote ourselves to the upbuilding of America; to the peace, honor and glory of our common country. Party dissensions should no longer divide or rack the public mind; nor the zeal or temper of either side deter any citizen from patriotic devotion to the good of all."

(Signed.) "WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

FURNACE FIRES LIGHTED.

By President-Elect McKinley--Mills and Factories Feeling the Effect of Restored Confidence.

CANTON, O., Nov. 5.--Major McKinley went about noon today for the first time since the election and was warmly greeted by those who saw him. He took a walk early in the day through the residence section and about noon drove to his mother's home with a liberal share of the flowers which had been sent to his house. Driving or walking, he was kept busy acknowledging salutations from all sides.

Major McKinley this afternoon determined to take a trip to Cleveland within a day or two. Mrs. McKinley accompanied him. They go for much needed rest. The reports that cabinet state makers were busy throughout the country caused much good natured comment here today. It can be stated positively that all cabinet comment is purely confidential. Any personal inclinations Major McKinley may feel towards particular men have not been communicated to his closest friends.

Major McKinley's touching an electric key by which the new Niagara furnace at North Tonawanda, N. Y., was put into operation was an interesting event of the afternoon. Furnaces had been connected by wire with the McKinley home so that a touch of the telegraphic key at this end sent an electric spark which lighted the fires of the furnace. At exactly 2:30 the major pressed the key. Word came back that the furnace had started with a blaze, until the engineers of 3,000 spectators.

The flood of congratulatory telegrams and letters is unabated. At exactly 3:30 this afternoon President-elect McKinley touched an electric button at Canton which lighted a fire in furnace at the works of the Tonawanda Iron and Steel Company. For 450 men.

Ignited ten cords of wood and several hundred tons of coke inside the furnace. When the button was touched at Canton it completed an electric circuit, at the furnace, the incandescent films lighting the powder, which in turn ignited the cotton waste. There was no hitch in the working of the long distance match. Tonawanda celebrated the event with an immense procession of its citizens, augmented by a special train from Buffalo and a number of bands. The town is illuminated brilliantly in honor of the occasion.

Expect a Boom. LONISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.--Many of the wholesale dealers and manufacturers of this city are busy filling orders that have been received in the past two months, contingent upon the election of McKinley. Business men generally expect an immediate boom in all branches of business. Gold has become plentiful in the market here.

JONES FEELS BAD. Gives Up the Election, but Issues a Manifesto which Shows Had Temper.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.--Chairman Jones issues the following statement to-night: The result of the presidential election is apparently no longer in doubt. It has been one of the closest contests that the people have been called on to determine in recent years. We have claimed the election on our advice from states that were admittedly in doubt, in which we knew there had been many frauds and from which there were evidences of tampering with the returns. It seems now to be apparent that while Mr. Bryan, after making the most brilliant campaign in the history of our country, and having carried most of the states claimed to be doubtful, has not carried enough to assure his success in the electoral college. Bryan electors have been chosen from all of the states south of the Potomac and Ohio except West Virginia and all those west of the Missouri except California and Oregon. He has 120 electoral votes and this number may be increased by final returns from states yet in question. He has not obtained enough votes to carry the electoral college. Thus this remarkable campaign closes with the election of William McKinley. The result was brought about by every kind of coercion and intimidation on the part of the money power, including threats of lockouts and dismissals and impending starvation by the employment of by far the largest campaign fund ever used in this country and by the subordination of a large portion of the American press.

The President-elect and his party are under the pledge to the American people to continue the gold standard and by its operation to restore prosperity to this country. As chief executive Mr. McKinley will have the cordial support of the millions of patriotic Americans who have cast their votes for William Jennings Bryan. They bow to the mastery of the office and abide by the result with none of the mutterings that would have come from the mouled powers had it been successful.

They are confident the gold standard cannot give the promised prosperity but will gladly welcome it if it comes. They will continue the great struggle for the uplift of humanity and the maintenance of the dignity of our country in the establishment of the American monetary system. And the Democratic party, aided by its present allies will still uplift the bimetallic standard and bear it to victory.

(Signed.) JAMES K. JONES, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

HERE ARE THE RETURNS.

But They May Be Changed when the Returns are In--A Million Popular Majority for McKinley.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.--M. A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, gave out the following statement:

California	9
Connecticut	6
Delaware	3
Illinois	24
Indiana	13
Iowa	13
Maine	6
Maryland	8
Massachusetts	15
Michigan	14
Minnesota	9

South Dakota	4
Vermont	4
West Virginia	6
Wisconsin	12
Wyoming	1
Total	265

which insures the election by a majority of 52 in the electoral college, if every other electoral vote goes against us.

Another most significant feature of this victory is in the fact that McKinley and Hobart's election has been secured by a plurality of over 1,000,000 of the popular vote--the largest ever given.

The importance to the country of this result cannot be overestimated and is a matter of congratulation to all loyal and patriotic citizens of the United States.

(Signed.) M. A. HANNA, Chairman.

The foregoing statement was issued after an hour's executive deliberation at Republican national headquarters. Mr. Hanna, Mr. Osborne, Joseph H. Mankie, General Powell Clayton and Colonel N. B. Scott participating.

BRYAN HAS "GRIT."

He Says "The Fight for Free Silver Has Only Begun," but that's what He Said About Free Trade Two Years Ago.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.--"The fight has just commenced," thus spoke William J. Bryan to-night, when asked if he considered that the result of the election has been a serious blow to bimetalism. He had just sent a message to Major McKinley, conceding his election and tendering his congratulations. Mr. Bryan surrendered at 5:30 o'clock. He had just received the signal and responded with the next ten minutes with a telegram to his successful rival. This signal was a brief message from Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, informing him that he did not consider it wise to longer withhold the concession of McKinley's election. This message was received by Mr. Bryan a few minutes after he had returned with his wife from an evening stroll, and in the presence of a dozen callers, entered in the parlor and reading room of their unpretentious residence. The receipt of the telegram created no scene whatever, and one unacquainted with the facts would never have suspected from the surface indications, the importance of the occasion, or that the chief actor in the drama had more than a passing interest in it. He handed the telegram to Mrs. Bryan, who was standing near him and without a word, except to explain the purport of the message, sat down to his desk and penned the following telegram:

To Hon. Wm. McKinley, Jr., Canton, O: Senator Jones has just telegraphed information that the returns indicate your election, and I hasten to extend my congratulations. We have submitted the issue to the people and their will is law."

(Signed.) "W. J. BRYAN." The message was first submitted to Mrs. Bryan and then, after being amended in some slight particulars so as to conform to suggestions made by her, it was given to the press. While writing the message and after it was completed, Mr. Bryan chatted pleasantly with the newspaper correspondents who surrounded him, indicating by his manner that he felt relieved to have the matter definitely determined, even though the result was against him. He also showed very plainly that Senator Jones' message was no surprise to him, as it indeed was not, for those who have been in his confidence knew, he had considered the battle as practically lost ever since the first night after the election. He has, however, felt that it would be both discourteous and unwise to give out any intimation to this effect until the national committee had spoken.

Mr. Bryan announced that he would to-morrow issue an address, but he declined to make any statement to-night or to submit to an interview, further than to say that the fight for silver had just begun. It is known to be his purpose to devote much of his time in the future to educating the people to the acceptance of his views on the financial question and it is his intention to sound the key-note in the paper which he will issue to-morrow.

Mr. Bryan declined to outline his future plans or to give his opinion as to the causes which led to his defeat. It is quite certain, however, that he will be tempted by none of the flattering offers which are coming to him to leave Lincoln. He will remain about his home for the next few weeks, recuperating, for while in no way exhausted by the duties of the campaign, he confesses to a feeling of languor as a result of the arduous labors of the past four months. It is also believed that Mr. Bryan considers that the result of the election has in it much to encourage the advocates of independent action by this country on the question of the free coinage of silver.

Mrs. Bryan received the news with quite as much composure as did her husband. She had never felt the same confidence of success that he felt, and has from the first, been prepared for the news which Mr. Jones' brief message to-night brought.

He Dies Hard.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.--Chairman Washburn, of the Populist national committee late this afternoon conceded the election to McKinley.

"The returns to-day point to McKinley's election," said Mr. Washburn. "With the states west of the Missouri and south of the Ohio we had 200 electoral votes, not including Maryland or Delaware. We must hold all of them and carry either Indiana or Michigan in order to win. If we lose California or West Virginia or any other state it renders it necessary to carry both Indiana and Michigan which at this time does not seem probable."

Bryan's Telegram Arrives.

CANTON, O., Nov. 5.--At 11 o'clock to-night a dispatch from Mr. Bryan, at Lincoln, was received at the McKinley home, conveying his congratulations to Major McKinley on his election. As the Major had retired it was determined not to deliver the dispatch to him until morning.

Delaware's Vote.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.--The three electors of Delaware are Republicans by about 250. It will require the official count to determine the political complexion of the legislature. LATER--McKinley's majority in Delaware will be from 3,500 to 4,000. Tunnell, for governor, 1,800; Handy, free silver, for Congress, 2,400. The legislature is Democratic.

KENTUCKY DOUBTFUL.

Republicans Still Claim It--Official Count Required.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.--To M. E. Stone, General Manager Associated Press:

On the face of complete unofficial returns from all but three mountain counties, Bryan leads by 1,544. The votes of these three counties last year gave Governor Bradley 1,364 majority and have been counted on for considerable increased Republican majorities. One precinct in one of these counties has just reported one hundred increased Republican majority. We believe we have carried Kentucky for McKinley by 500 to 1,000. SAM J. ROBERTS, Chairman.

Later--Claimed for McKinley.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.--The following dispatch has just been received at the office of the Associated Press from W. O. Bradley, governor of Kentucky:

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 5, 1896.

Kentucky certainly for McKinley.

At midnight the result in Kentucky on presidential electors is more in doubt than ever. The revision of figures in some districts has brought the majority for either side down to a very small margin. Bryan has gained 494 votes in Calloway county and 633 in Hardin, by the discovery of errors in the count. McKinley has gained 500 in the Tenth from the same cause. The Democrats claim the state for Bryan by 1,500 to 2,000, while the Republicans claim it for McKinley by 500. The vote is so close that the official returns will be necessary to determine the result.

Latest From Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 5.--The total vote of Michigan appears to have been, in round numbers, 455,000, of which for governor, Pingree received 275,000; Sligh, 205,000.

Pingree's actual plurality has increased to 70,300. McKinley's is about 14,000 less on account, presumably, of the "Bryan and Plunder" vote, which shows that a considerable element which favored Bryan also voted for Pingree. The legislature is now estimated to stand as follows: Senate, 26 Republicans, 6 fusionists, House, 8 Republicans, 20 fusionists.

Minnesota.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.--Minnesota practically complete with 34 counties complete and the remainder of the 81 estimated closely gives McKinley 45,512 plurality and Cough, for governor, 10,115.

South Dakota.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 5.--Returns from this state are incomplete. Chairman Elliott, of the Republican state committee, now estimates McKinley's majority to exceed 1,000. He has 1,000 majority so far and no material losses are expected.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 5.--The presidential ticket in this state appears to have been elected for Bryan by a majority of from 5,000 to 15,000. The returns from counties now in show a close vote with the Bryan electors leading by an apparently safe majority.

New Jersey's Vote.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 5.--Complete returns give McKinley and Hobart 53,000 plurality in New Jersey. The next legislature will stand: Senate--Republicans 18; Democrats 4. House--Republicans 56; Democrats 4.

One Elector Sure.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 5.--One county remote from railroad and telegraph and railroad had not been heard from. Have certainly elected one Mc-Kinley elector. Indications are we have elected all three as well as congressmen and supreme judge. Plurality either way will be within limit of 200 votes, except perhaps as to one elector. Legislature will be Republican. F. E. Warren, chairman Wyoming Republican state committee.

Nebraska's Vote.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.--Nebraska's vote is incomplete, but Bryan will carry the state by 2,000 and with him the entire state fusion ticket. The figures to-night, however, change the result in the first congressional district, Jesse B. Strode, (Rep.), is elected. This gives four silver congressmen from Nebraska and two Republicans.

A Decrease in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 5.--The returns so far shows decided decrease in the Democratic vote as compared with 1892. No figures have been given from the committee and the official count next Saturday for Bryan on the face of the returns will hardly be less than 35,000.

The Bay State.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.--Complete returns from Massachusetts give McKinley a plurality of 168,716. The vote was as follows: Bryan 104,280; McKinley 272,990; Palmer 11,855. Wolcott's plurality for governor is 150,705.

The vote upon the question of biennial elections shows a majority against the proposed change.

Oregon's Vote.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.--Practically complete returns from all but five remote counties in Oregon give McKinley 39,148; Bryan 35,922; McKinley's majority, 3,156. Returns from five remaining counties cannot materially change these figures.

Only a Question of Majority.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 5.--It is only a question of majorities in this state now, it being assured for McKinley. It is thought the majority will be close on to 8,000. The Republican state ticket is elected by a large majority.

Ohio's Majority.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 5.--Superintendent I. N. Miller, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has to-night complete returns from Ohio, on which he makes McKinley's plurality 52,453.

Attention, Plumed Knights.

The original members of that famous organization the Plumed Knights, which created so much favorable comment in the campaign of 1884 and 1888, will participate in the big demonstration to-morrow night in a body. A meeting to arrange the details will be held at the McLaure House to-night, at half-past seven, and every member of the old organization is urged to be present.

Steamship Arrivals.

PLYMOUTH--Normanna, New York, for Hamburg. QUEENSTOWN--Pennland, Philadelphia, for Liverpool. BREMERHAVEN--Lahn, New York, via Southampton.

The temperature yesterday as observed by C. Schmitt, druggist, corner Fourteenth and Market streets, was as follows: 7 a. m. 63.2 p. m. 58. 8 a. m. 64.1 p. m. 57. 12 m. 65. [Weather--Change.]

WE ARE IN IT.

West Virginia's Plurality More Than Twelve Thousand.

ATKINSON GETS MUCH MORE

Than McKinley, which is a Pointer For Mr. Watts.

SILVER CRAZE KNOCKED OUT

And the Free Mountaineers of the War-Born State Vote Overwhelmingly for National Honor and Credit--Later Returns From the Counties Show No Decrease in the Popular Vote--West Virginia Now a Republican State for Sure, and is in the Family to Stay.

With only meagre returns from West Virginia at hand Tuesday night, the Intelligencer claimed that the state had gone Republican by a plurality of anywhere from thirteen to fifteen thousand and that there was a clean sweep on the national, congressional and state tickets. The returns have been slow coming in, but they are now practically complete and show that the claim of election night was not exaggerated.

The figures received yesterday do not materially decrease the estimate in yesterday's Intelligencer that McKinley had carried West Virginia by thirteen thousand plurality. Complete returns from some counties showed increases over the first estimates and from others there were slight decreases. It is believed, from the information at hand, that the McKinley plurality will be in the neighborhood of 13,000.

Mr. Atkinson's plurality for governor will be more than that of McKinley and the state ticket wins along with him with varying pluralities. Mr. Atkinson's plurality will, it is believed, be between thirteen and fourteen thousand.

All four Republican congressional candidates are elected by unprecedented majorities. Captain Dovenor's is in the neighborhood of 4,500; Dayton's is more than 2,000; Dorr won't be much behind Dovenor and Miller has about the majority of 1894.

The legislature stands about as given yesterday. Twenty-one of the twenty-six state senators will be Republican and the Republicans will have about thirty-five majority in the house of delegates, enough to do business.

Until full official returns are in it will be impossible to analyze the vote so as to bring out all the significant features, but enough is known to show that there were many of them. For instance, it is shown that Watts, who posed as a friend of the miners, lost heavily in mining districts and that Atkinson gained at points where the Populists were expected to sweep things. In Lewis county, where the Watts managers levied campaign assessments on the hospital employees, Atkinson ran 125 ahead of McKinley.

In the Ohio valley Dovenor (for Congress) gained many votes from business men and the working classes, not only on account of the currency question, but because of the splendid work he did for the Ohio river improvement during the last session of Congress, as a member of the rivers and harbors committee. Dayton's work in the same line for the Monongahela, counted in the same way, as is evident in the fact that counties in the upper Monongahela valley gave him handsome majorities. In Marion county, especially, he received a majority along with McKinley, which almost the entire Democratic county ticket expected. This shows, for the second time, that Marion county is all right on the national issues and in recognition of her business welfare.

Another significant feature of the West Virginia election is that at nearly every point where the eloquence of "the boy orator of the Platte" disturbed the atmosphere, McKinley made heavy gains. This fact will be made more impressive when the returns of the entire country are analyzed.

Following is a table of West Virginia pluralities by counties, based on reports received up to mid-night:

KANAWHA COUNTY

Comes Up with More than Two Thousand Plurality.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 5.--Official returns have been received from every precinct in the county with the exception of Sissonville and Kendall mills. They give the following figures on presidential and gubernatorial candidates: For President: McKinley, 6,897; Bryan, 4,552; McKinley's majority, 2,345. For governor: Atkinson, 6,852; Watts, 4,524; Atkinson's majority,
